Fund manager's report

- The Asian dollar market generated positive returns in August, as investors continued to take positions and the market was well bid.
- High-yield bonds outperformed investment-grade bonds, thanks to risk appetite which remained strong.
- The US Federal Reserve reported that domestic economic activity had started to level out, conditions in financial markets were improving and household spending was showing signs of stabilisation.
- Investment grade names that initiated bond placements included Petronas, Swire Pacific, Korea National Housing Corporation and PSA International as well as sovereign-owned PLN (Perusahaan Listrik Negara).
