Fund manager's report

- Emerging markets fell in January, as concerns over policy tightening in China, risk on sovereign debts and uncertainty surrounding US banking reforms dented investor sentiment, as did the retreat in oil prices. Solid US GDP data did little to mitigate the losses.
- Most central banks kept interest rates unchanged, but Hungary cut rates yet again to boost growth. Amid persistent fears about overheating, China raised bank reserve requirements and ordered several lenders to halt lending temporarily. India also lifted reserve ratios as wholesale prices advanced further.
- On the economic front, China's fourth-quarter GDP rose sharply, but South Korea's pace of growth eased. In South Africa, manufacturing activity expanded in December as exports recovered, but job losses hurt November retail sales. In Eastern Europe, investor confidence reached a record high.
- In politics, Chile, Sri Lanka and Croatia elected new presidents. Meanwhile, Argentina's central bank chief quit amid a dispute with the government over the use of the country's reserves.
- During the month, we added to China Mobile on relative price weakness.

Important information

In addition, from 1 January 2008, the CPF Board will pay an extra interest rate of 1% per annum on the first $60,000 of a CPF member's combined balances, including up to $20,000 in the OA. From 1 April 2008, the first $20,000 in the OA will not be allowed to be invested under the CPF Investment Scheme.
